RIISING TO THE TOP

Morris makes management

Congratulations and best wishes to Janet Morris. In the 13 year history of this College, Janet is the first AUCE member to climb to a management position. She has been appointed Assistant to the Dean of Instructional Services effective immediately and until June 30/82. In taking the position she had to resign as President of AUCE, a position which was taken over by Mick Maguire by acclamation.

Visit New York through Cap

Rose Naumann and Paul Azaroff are at it again. Hmmm. Perhaps I ought to rephrase that. Rose Naumann and Paul Azaroff are once again conducting a Tour of New York City. And if you are interested, you had better get your name in FAST because this is an extremely popular event. The tour starts May 10 and finishes May 21 and will include the following: single accommodation, breakfasts, 4 Broadway plays, eight major museums (including guided tours and lectures in some instances), sightseeing in Soho, Greenwich Village, Harlem, the Wall Street area, Empire State Building, Rockefeller Centre, World Trade Centre, and shopping trips to all of the famous department stores and specialty neighbourhoods. There will be lots of free time available for individual activities and the cost of all this is approximately $ 1270 Canadian. A deposit of $130 is required immediately and the rest will be paid in two payments before the end of March. For more information on this trip contact Rose (loc. 367) or Paul (266) or Community Ed. local 321.

Re the Squamish campus

A note about Squamish: Rachel Aarons is now half time counsellor and half time Women's Resource Centre person at the Howe Sound Centre.

Shape up at noon

For those of you who sat around all summer and now want to shape up, or those of you who are about to sit around all winter and lose your muscles, consider taking the Noon Fitness Program with Joe Iacobellis in the Fitness Centre. The program begins Monday Sept. 21, 12:15 to 12:45 and will continue daily for the rest of the term. This year for the first time there may be a nominal charge, but don't worry -- it'll be no more than $5 per year.

The first Fall Reading will be Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 8 pm with Robin Blaser. (Lounge)

Messages from MPC

If anyone has lost a tray of slides they should contact MPC at local 255. The only identification, reports Edna, is the end slide "The Centre for Humanities, Inc." By the way, there are two new bodies in MPC this term -- Dave Harper, Media Assistant, and Dave Sharrack, Graphic Artist.

Do you know how Canada is run?

Are you interested in the machinations of the Canadian government? If you would like to find out more about the formal and informal workings of our Federal government, consider taking Political Science 104 this term--Wednesday evenings from 6 to 10. The course covers the Federal Public Service, Cabinet, the Prime Ministers' Office, the role of Public Opinion, Interest Groups and Political Parties. If you want to sign up for credit or audit, do so NOW.

LIBRARY WILL BE OPEN WEEKENDS THIS TERM

Library hours for all of you struggling to get educated, are 8:30 - 9:30 Monday to Thurs., 8:30-4:30 Friday (let's face it, nobody studies Friday night) & Sat.

and Sun. from 1:00-5:00. AV is open 9 - 9 Mon - Thurs, 9 to 4:30 Friday & 1 - 5 Sunday ONLY. Film Distribution and MPC are open during the day weekdays only.

Co-ordinator takes Leave

Eleanor Worman, who has been co-ordinator of the Early Childhood Education program since it started, is on a year's leave of absence and Terry Adler is taking her place. We were interested to find out, incidentally, that Eleanor lives on Passage Island and commutes to Horseshoe Bay by rowboat. Meanwhile, back in ECE there are two new instructors -- Mary Ellen Meunier and Rosslyn Anne Battistelli. Welcome to Cap.

CE offers Fitness class

If Noon Fitness doesn't work into your schedule, what about an evening Fitness class offered through Community Ed? Bruce Merit will begin working people out from 7 - 8:30 Wednesday Sept. 23 and continue Mondays and Wednesdays to November 2. The fee for the program is $30. Call 321 for info or drop into the isolated college appendage at 778 Premier St.

Rose to teach Felting

Rose Naumann, our Weaving instructor, has an impressive list of credentials. She is a graduate of Vancouver School of Art who has studied in Banff, Mexico and Germany. She has written a book on weaving and her well known felted wallhanging is displayed permanently at the Arts Club Theatre. If you recall, she had a show in Munich last Christmas and while she was there flew over to Tunisia to study the weaving traditions there. But this is not a biography of Rose--this is a build up for her course "Feltmaking: Potential for the Fiber Artist" which is being held through Community Ed. Saturday Sept. 26 and Oct. 3. In this course the rediscovery of an ancient technique will be placed in historical perspective with discussion of the preparation of fleece, dyeing, teasing and carding. Included will be planning and designing for projects, development of ideas, sketches, paper design, embroidery and applique with felt. Suggestions for projects include garments, boots, containers and wallhangings. For registration info contact C.E. at 321.

Cinema & Suds

In the Fun and Entertainment department, there will be a Beer Garden on October 1 (Thursday) with Blue Northern and the film on the 24th is "The Blue Angel" with Marlena Dietrich. There will be a short introductory film as well, "An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge." Those are in the All College Lounge at 7:30 pm, free.

Votes Invited

Well here is an item that can be described as "frivolous" at the very least. Since this submission was anonymous I haven't the least idea who to praise/castigate, so we'll just include this verbatim and let you make up your own minds.

"Donna/Bill: An idea for the Informer. Hours were spent in compiling this list...

THE 10 MOST APPEALING MEN ON CAMPUS WHO IS YOUR CHOICE FOR #1

_____ Ash Barton	_____ Cam McKie
_____ John Chu	_____ Dwane Neuberger
_____ Jim Dillon	_____ Tony Souza
_____ Dave Jones	_____ Peter Tordoff
_____ Bruce Lucas	_____ Alf Waterman
_____ Other

Voting to be done by female staff only. Rate your first 3 choices as a 15-10-5. High score wins the honour of being the "Most Appealing Man on Campus." Winner to receive dinner for two at their favorite McDonald's restaurant."

Ed note (Bill) - The two runners up could receive a silver Capilano College key chain. (We have bushels of them)

Ed note (Donna) - I have arbitrarily added the "Other" category because I can think of a couple of other men I would put on that kind of list if I was going to go and make one. But apart from that there is a real hitch here if one doesn't know all of the people involved. Do the anonymous contest organizers intend to post contestants' names conspicuously on their backs for a week so that people will recognize them?

Well, here it is, so send your entries or comments to Information Services or call us at local 323/324. The Informer is generally typed up each Thursday, so that's your deadline.
